POSITION DESCRIPTION

POSITION TITLE: Graduate Assistant: HEOP (2024-2025)
LOCATION: Geneva, NY

POSITION SUMMARY

Hobart and William Smith Colleges is accepting applications for admission into the Master of Arts, Higher Educational Leadership program. Our two-year Master's in Higher Education Leadership (MHEL) program will prepare you to challenge the current state of higher education and lead the change needed to support the next generation of college students. Courses encourage you to analyze and critique the history and policy of higher education, identify ways to move the needle on belonging, diversity and equity initiatives and investigate leadership and innovation techniques. Admission is on a rolling basis, with a priority deadline of March 1, 2024, for the 2024-2025 academic year for both Graduate Assistantships and admission. The program boasts a wide array of Graduate Assistantships which include tuition remission in the HWS MHEL program and a $20,000 stipend.

The Graduate Assistant assists the Opportunity Programs in providing academic support services to students, specifically those on academic probation within the HEOP student population. In addition, they will assist in the oversight and guidance of the HEOP Ambassador Program which assists in recruitment and admissions efforts, as well as develops and implements programming for the Opportunity Programs student population.

Essential Responsibilities:

- Develop and deliver a series of workshops that address the skills needed to be academically successful.
- Meet individually with students on Academic Probation to discuss ways to enhance academic success.
- Communicate with the HEOP staff related to what tools need to be provided to support the success of the students on Academic Probation.
- Plan and carry out activities that will engage students in their academic success goals.
- Provide oversight and guidance to the HEOP Ambassador Program to develop and carry out recruitment and admissions activities, and to coordinate activities to engage OP students with one another.
